

"A study in the resonance of shadow"

BAROQUE NOIR

QILA

QILA is a luxury couture house that serves as a bridge between ancestral craftsmanship and contemporary, avant-garde design. Based in Jamshedpur, the brand is defined by its commitment to "Quiet Luxury"—a philosophy that prioritizes technical mastery and intellectual minimalism over loud branding.

STARK SILHOUETTES.
DEEPLY ROOTED
CRAFT. BAROQUE NOIR
REDEFINES EVENING
LUXURY THROUGH A

THE SOVEREIGN DRAPE

CRAFTSMANSHIP DETAIL

The "Antique Metallic Craft" technique utilizes century-old methods of pitta work to create modern biological forms

LOOK 01

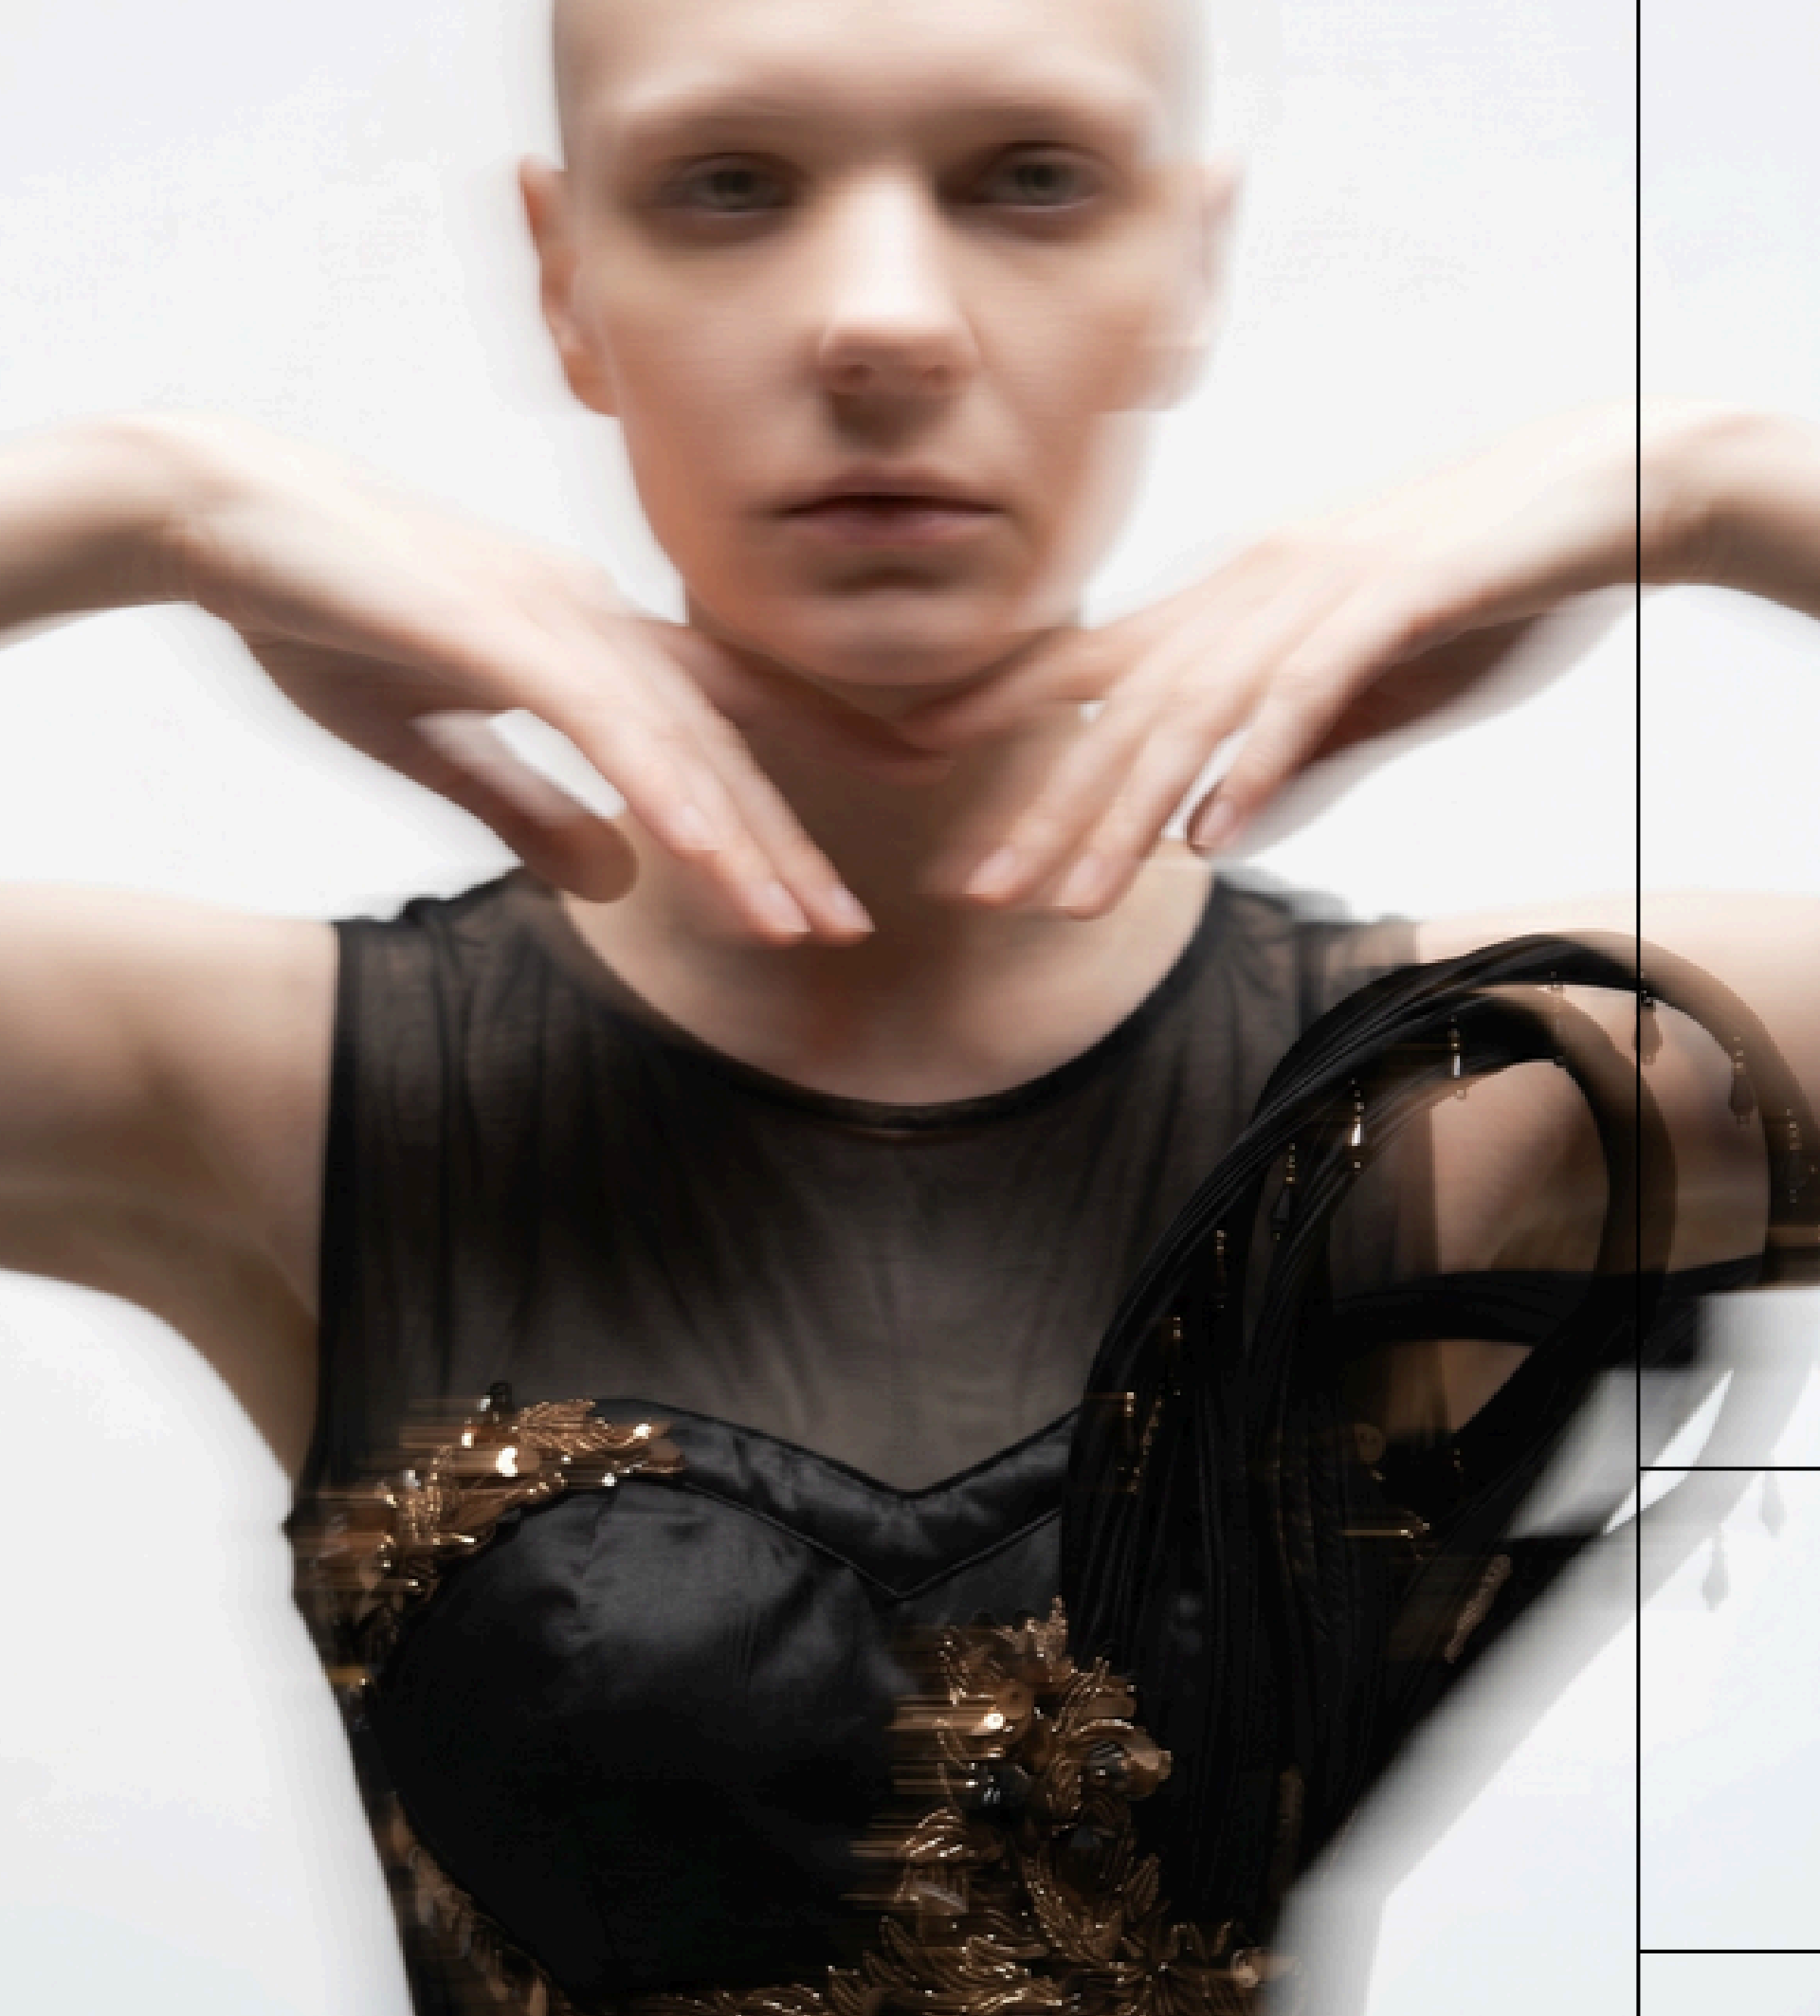

THE-PLEATED MANTLE

Architectural pleating creates a wing-like silhouette, offering a dramatic contrast between the sharp lines of the mantle and the fluid movement of the wearer

LOOK 02

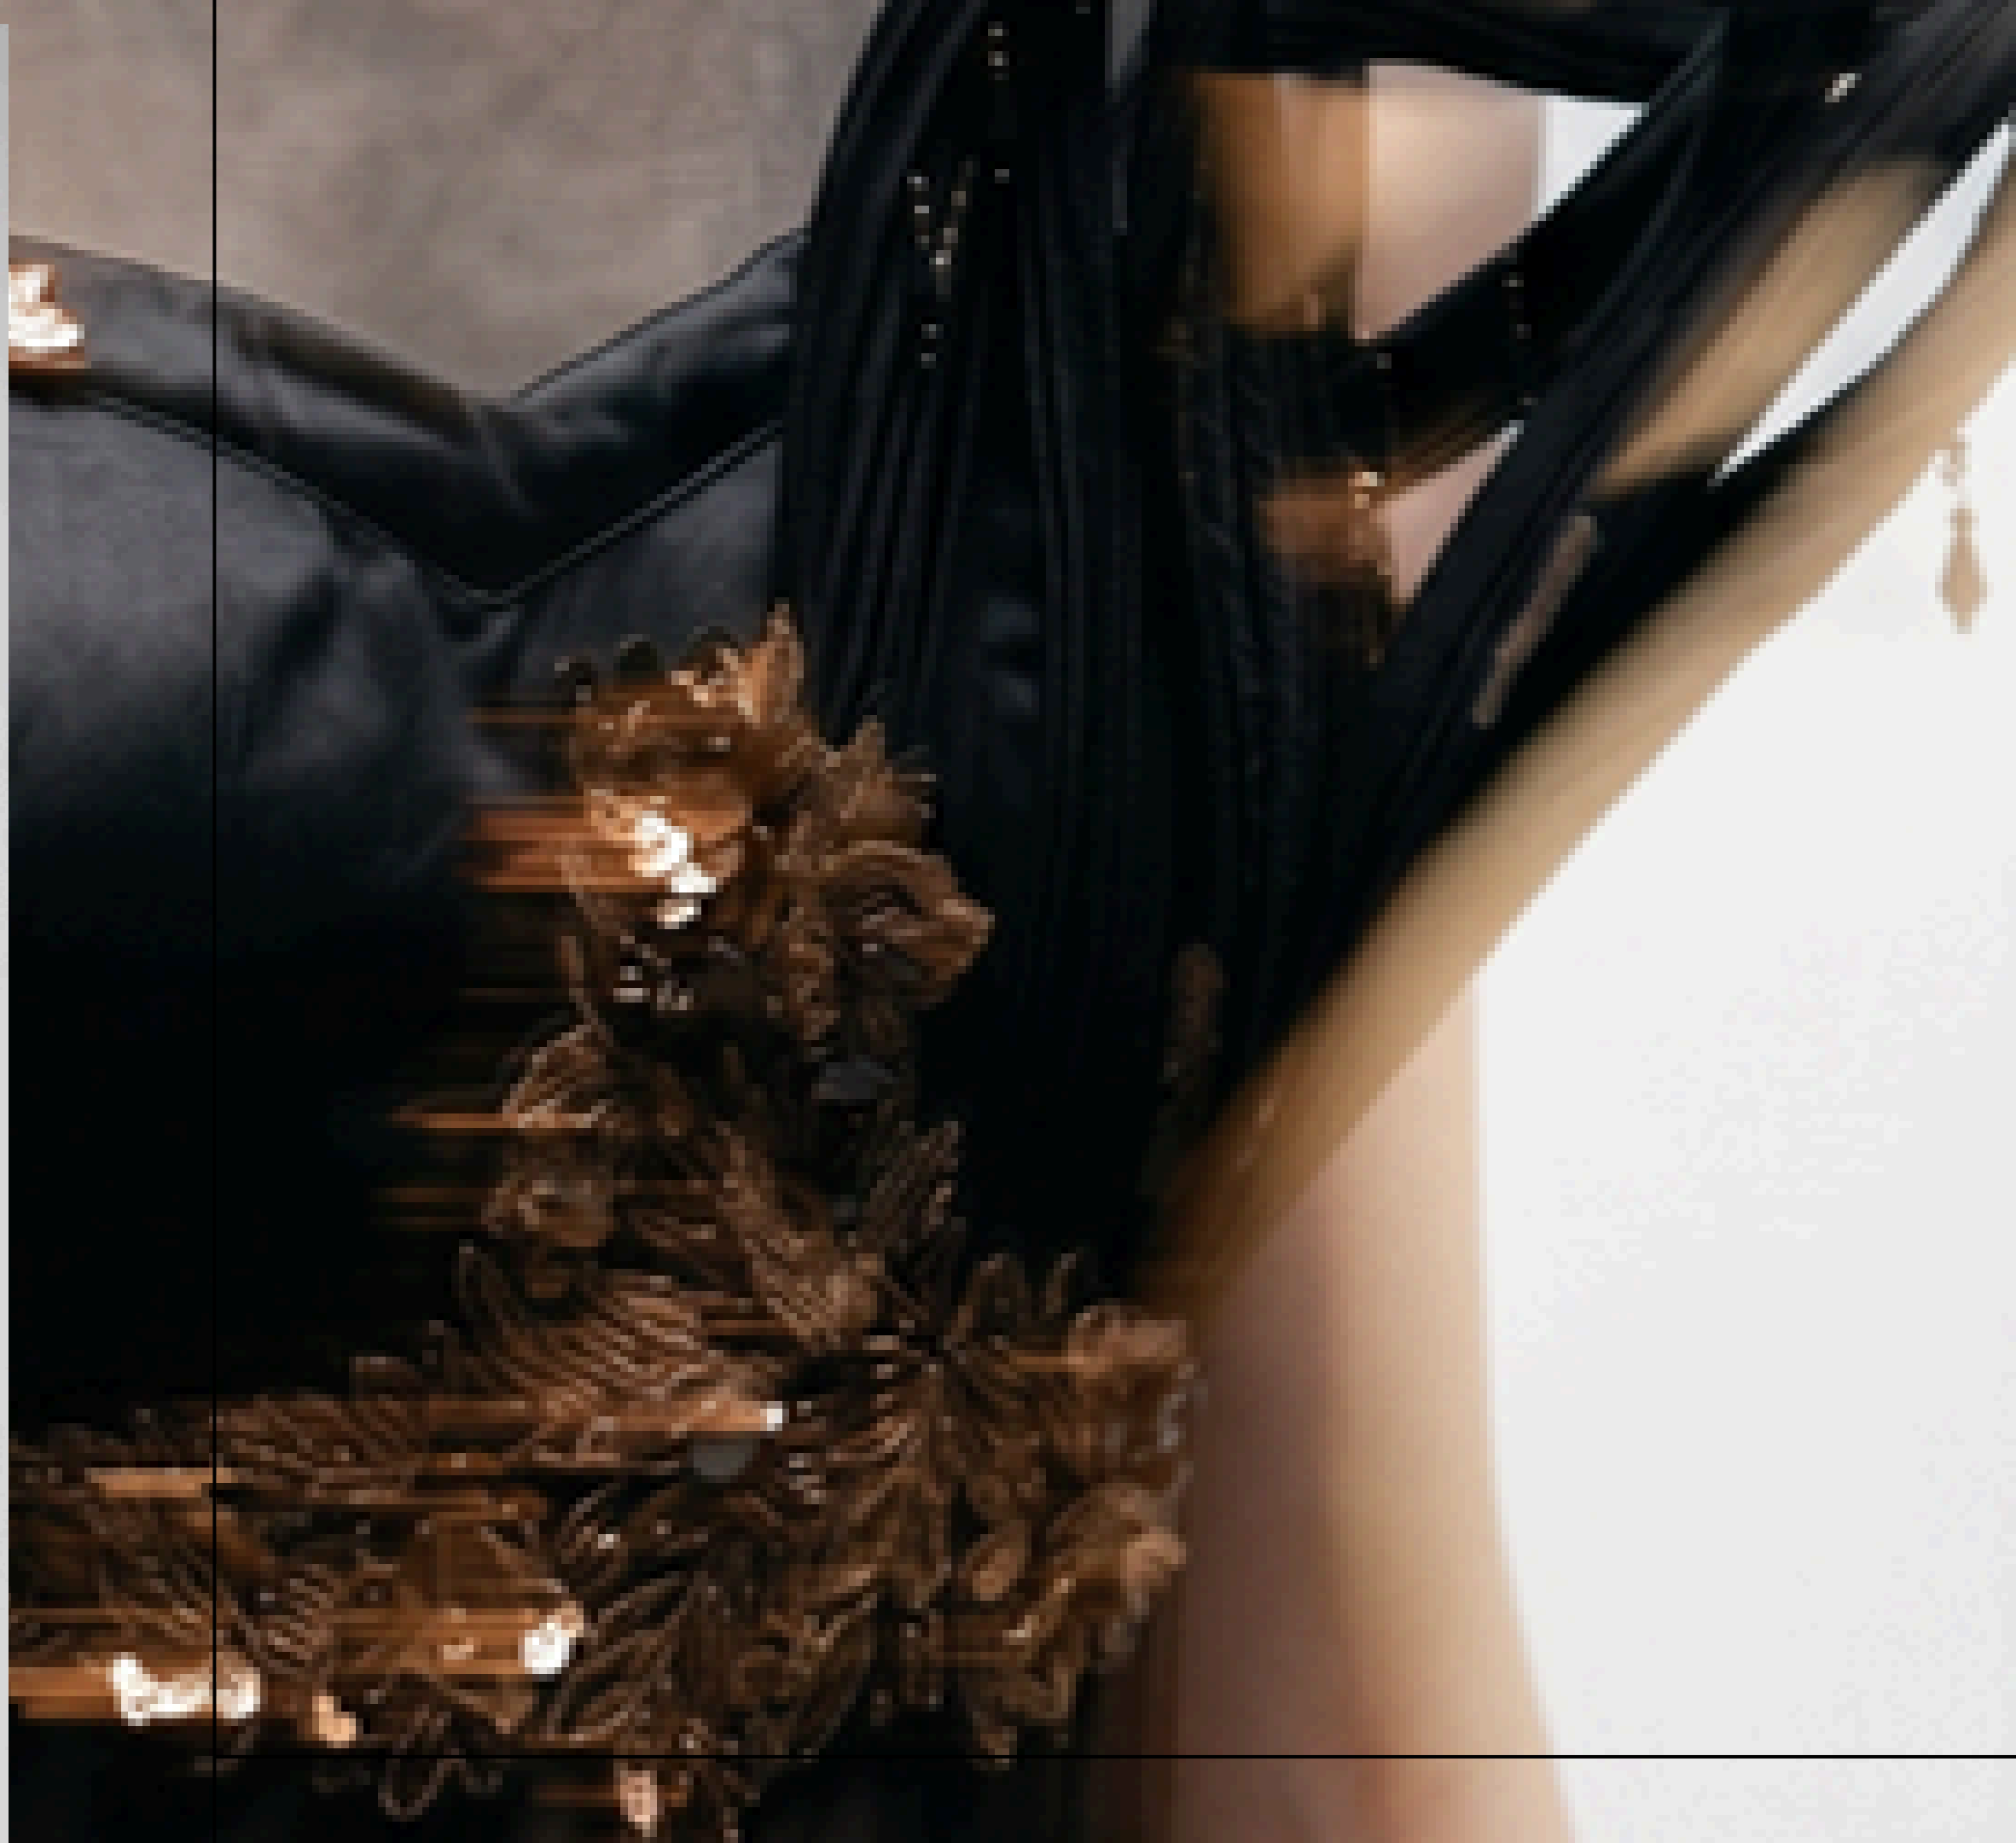

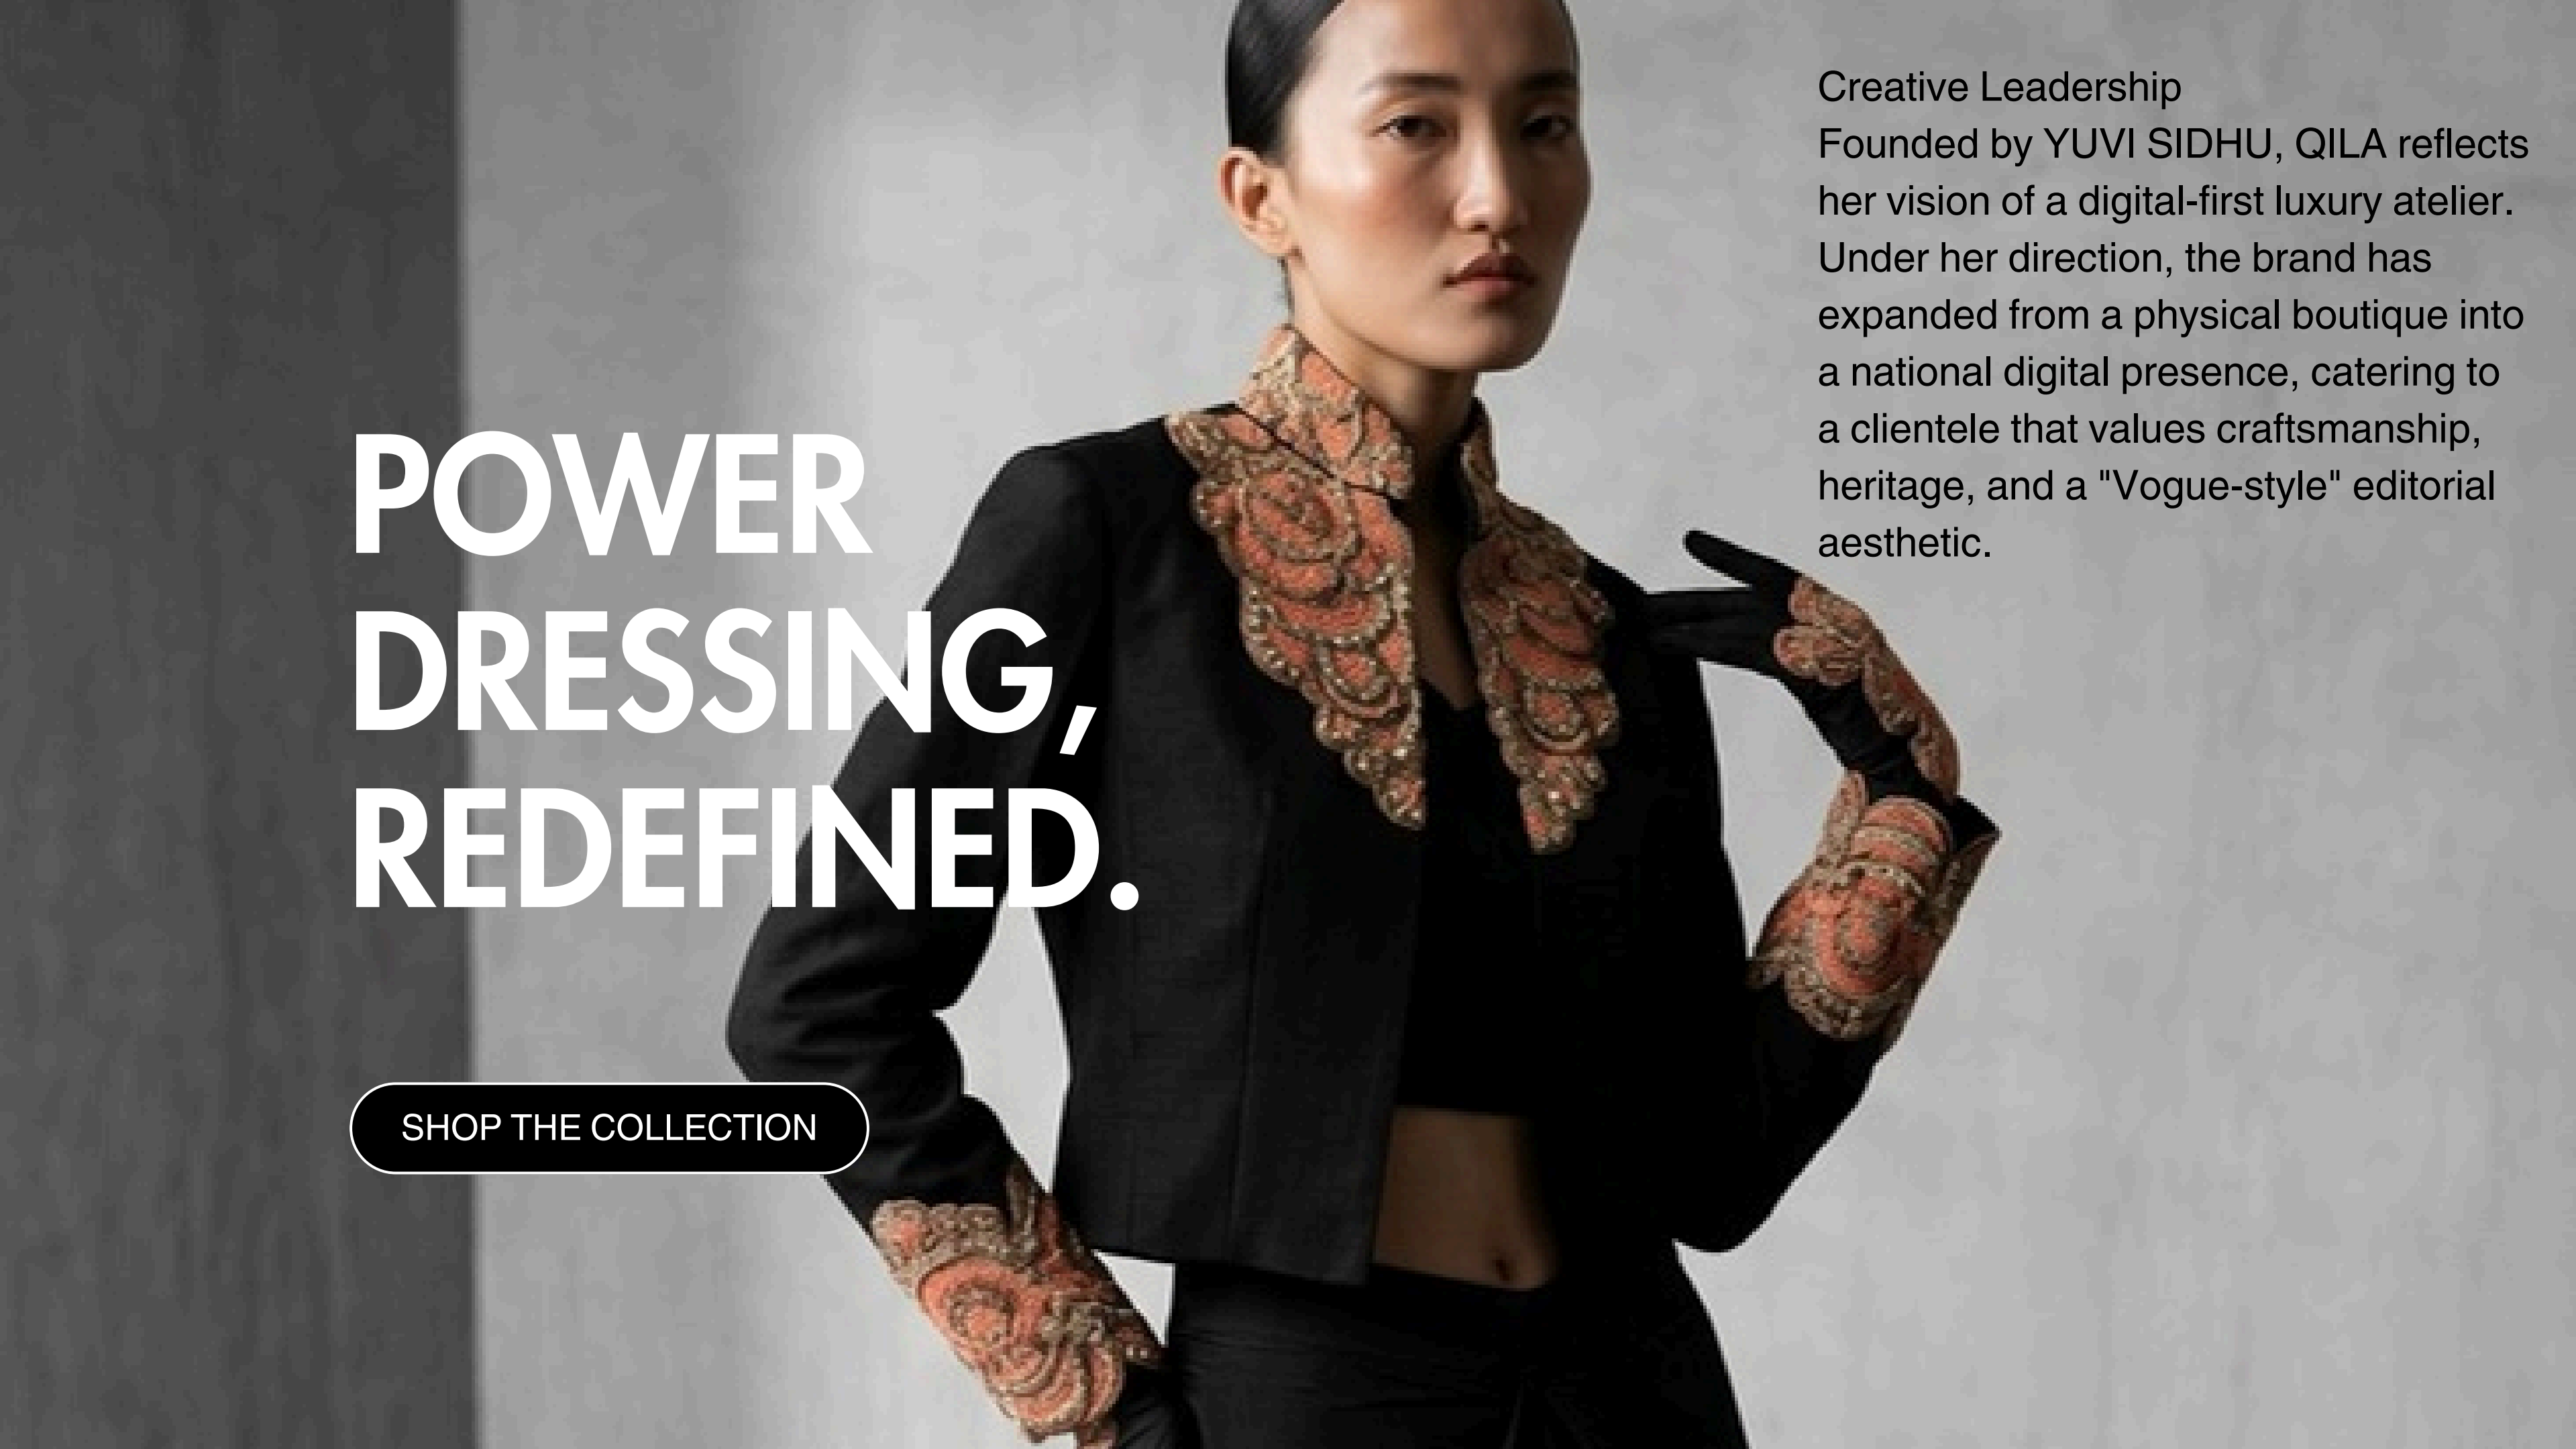

THE COCKTAIL EDIT

Structural cage elements meet dense zardozi motifs. A look for the nocturnal elite

LOOK 03

POWER DRESSING, REDEFINED.

SHOP THE COLLECTION

Creative Leadership

Founded by YUVI SIDHU, QILA reflects her vision of a digital-first luxury atelier. Under her direction, the brand has expanded from a physical boutique into a national digital presence, catering to a clientele that values craftsmanship, heritage, and a "Vogue-style" editorial aesthetic.